Community Christmas believes that

‘no elderly person should be alone on Christmas Day unless they want to be.’

According to research just under

250,000 elderly people
spent Christmas alone.

Many organisations meet the needs of the elderly throughout the year but take a well earned break at Christmas.

We ensure the needs of the elderly are met on Christmas Day.

Creating contacts to improve physical, social and emotional wellbeing for the rest of the year.

If you, an organisation, or someone you know, already run an event for the elderly on Christmas Day then tell us about it.

If you don’t know of an event in your area our postcode search will help you check – we have other pointers we can offer too.

If you would like to ‘fill the gap’ we can provide guidance and support to help you get an event up and running.

Our national focus enables local delivery.
We believe that no elderly person in the UK should be alone on Christmas Day, unless they want to be.

Doris lived in a block of flats designed for the over 55s.

She was collected for Christmas lunch, with others, in a minibus and was given the opportunity to meet some of her other neighbours for the first time.

They resolved to keep in touch for the rest of the year.

We don’t want Christmas to be ‘just another day’, we want it to be a day when our communities make our elderly feel treasured and cared for.

68% of people say they can’t imagine anything worse than being alone on Christmas Day.

Bring your Community together to make this Christmas different and build bonds that last all year long.
